Washoe County Sheriff's Deputies responded to a call of a physical altercation between three females battering a fourth female at a party at the "Lemmon Valley Pits".

Once deputies arrived on scene, they met with the female victim and witnesses. Sheriff's Deputies learned through their initial investigation that three females approached the victim and began a physical altercation.

Kelsie Ann Thomas, 18 was identified and arrested along with two 17 year old females. The suspects stuck the female victim her in the face multiple times and broke a bottle over her head. The victim was seen by REMSA and was treated for her injuries.

Thomas was arrested for Battery with a Deadly Weapon and booked into the Washoe County Detention Facility. The two juveniles were arrested, charged with Simple Battery and transported to Jan Evans Juvenile Detention Facility.
