Washoe County Deputies conducted compliance checks of local establishments in the South Patrol District on March 8, 2010 and cited 4 of the 11 businesses for selling alcohol to a minor.

Deputies sent an underage person into 11 businesses to attempt to purchase alcohol in the Incline Village, Crystal Bay areas. The businesses included 4 bars, 1 restaurant, 3 casinos, 1 supermarket, 1 gas/convenience store and 1 liquor store. Staff at 7 of the 11 businesses asked for identification and declined the sale. At four of the businesses the sale was completed and clerks were cited for non-compliance.

The 7-11, 901 Tahoe Blvd. received a civil violation from the Department of Taxation for non-compliance with mandatory alcohol awareness training. This effort was funded by a grant from Join Together Northern Nevada.

Clerks at the following establishments were compliant:

Rookies Sports Bar	930 Tahoe Blvd.
Village Pub	848 Tanager Street
Bowl Incline	920 Southwood Blvd.
Incline Spirits and Cigars	120 Country Club Drive
7-11	901 Tahoe Blvd.
Jim Kelly's Nugget	20 State Route 28
