Washoe County Deputies will be shooting hoops in a basketball game against Reno Police Officers to raise money to benefit their Honor Guard programs. Each $10.00 ticket sold is also admission to the Reno Bighorns game against the Maine Red Claws immediately following the Law Enforcement competition.

The Washoe County Sheriff's Office Honor Guard was first established in the late 1970's and participates in a wide variety of details such as color guard and flag presentation ceremonies for numerous local and state functions. In addition they also participate in all aspects of law enforcement funerals.

The Honor Guard also represents the Sheriff's Office as well as our community during the National Law Enforcement Memorial ceremonies in Washington D.C. each year, which recognizes the ultimate sacrifice made by law enforcement officers across the country.

For more information regarding tickets contact Sergeant Sandra Barboza at 328-3376.

If Bunco's your game, Saturday March 13th at the Club Cal Neva's Event Room there will be a Bunco Tournament also to raise money for the Honor Guard. There is a $50 entry fee and registration begins at noon, $1,500 prize pool (based on 100 entries).
