On June 21, 2010, Washoe County Sheriff's Deputies responded to a call of a domestic disturbance on Midnight Court in Sun Valley. Upon the deputies arrival they learned that a male subject had armed himself with a knife and locked himself inside of a bathroom. Deputies made entry into the bathroom and discovered that the male subject had self inflicted injuries to his neck, wrist and stomach region.

Detectives were called to investigate and discovered that the male subject had allegedly sexually assaulted his 4 year old niece. The suspect, David Mosqueda, 22, resident of Sun Valley is a previously convicted sex offender.

Upon completing the investigation David Mosqueda was taken into custody and booked into the Washoe County Detention Facility on July 14, 2010 at approximately 4:10PM. He is charged with Sexual Assault of a Child under the age of 16 and Lewdness with a Child under the age of 14. Bail is set at $27,500.
