On February 9, 2010 the Washoe County Sheriff's Office was dispatched to a report of a sexual assault of a female student at North Valley's High School in Golden Valley.

The victim reported that she had been forced into a restroom on school grounds and sexually assaulted by the male acquaintance.

Washoe County Sheriff Detectives followed up on the information given by the victim and witnesses and identified the male juvenile.

On February 10, 2010 at approximately 2:15PM the suspect accompanied by his father turned himself in at the Washoe County Sheriff's Office Main Station and was booked into the Jan Evans Juvenile Detention Center.

The Washoe County School District Administration and Police Department cooperated in and assisted with the investigation.
